

Rafter for a Happy Life

If you're ever feeling upset and downtrodden, may these words help bring you comfort.

A call out to a friend, whom I know not:
Prevent days of good from being forgot.
True, you will face many days of anguish,
But let not chances of pleasure perish.

I too have felt the pain you feel inside,
So take comfort and know for you I've cried.
That which I write to you now is sincere,
I'll weep in your stead, so you can feel cheer.

So go forth and live – live a happy life!
Seek only peace and avoid facing strife.
I hope to hear I served as a rafter,
The day we meet - in this life or after.
